

RANGERS CHARITY FOUNDATION

I agree that I have read, understand and agree to conditions of entry and participation.

Event Terms and Conditions Ziplide the Clyde (the “event”)

- These event Terms and Conditions contain important information regarding participation in the Event.
- All who take part in the event agree to these terms and conditions. By entering the vicinity of the event all spectators agree to these conditions.
- RCF may use any photographs, videos and/or sound recordings of the event which include any images of the participants for any purpose including, but not limited to, promoting, advertising and marketing purposes at any time after the event.
- The registration fee is non-refundable (except as permitted in these Conditions).
- Participants over the age of 10 are welcome to take part in the Event (10-16 year olds must have parental consent and be accompanied by an adult on the day).
- Participants must be over 33kg (5.19 stone) in weight and under 120kg (18.8 stone)
- The participant can use sponsor forms or online platform Justgiving to raising money for Rangers Charity Foundation.
- When collecting sponsor money the participant will always act with fairness, honesty integrity and openness. The participant shall not exploit their position as fundraiser for personal gain.
- If seeking sponsorship from businesses, the participant must gain permission from the business owner to enter their premises.
- If collecting money on the streets please seek permission from Rangers Charity Foundation and the local authorities.
- Sponsorship money can be handed into RCF any time before or up to 4 weeks after the event, and we will also have staff on the day available to take in sponsorship money. Any monies raised on Justgiving are automatically sent to RCF and we will have a note of this on the day.
- If you raise money and then are unable to take part in the event due to mitigating circumstances, we will only accept sponsor money if you can provide a sponsor form with confirmation that sponsors are still happy to donate their money.
- The participant acknowledges that participation in the event is physically strenuous and the participant is aware of the nature of the event and associated medical and physical risks involved. If necessary, participants should gain advice from their GP as to whether they are physically prepared to undertake the event. RCF does not conduct health or fitness checks on participants.
- Participants agree not to participate unless they are medically and physically able, and that it is their responsibility to decide whether they are, and any child for whom they are responsible for is, medically and physically able to participate.
- Children aged 16 years and under must be accompanied by an adult throughout the event.
- Participants with disabilities are welcome to take part in the Event. Due to the physical nature of the Event, please contact RCF directly prior to booking to establish whether the event is suitable for you.
- Participants are expected to exhibit appropriate behaviour at all times. This includes respect for all people, equipment and facilities and cooperative, positive participation. RCF may dismiss, without refund, any Participant whose behaviour endangers safety or negatively affects the event, other participants, spectators, RCF staff or property of any type or kinds.

- RCF takes no responsibility for any damage to, or loss of, personal items and property of participants or spectators at or during the
- RCF reserves the right to alter the Event at any time.
- RCF reserves the right to cancel the Event at any time. If the Event is cancelled, entry fees and sponsorship will be refunded in full to Participants.
- The information participants provide to RCF at registration will be shared with Spina Bifida Scotland who are organising the event.
- The RCF will only contact the participant about other news and events if you have given us permission to do so, if the participant no longer wishes to hear from us they should let us know via phone or email (0141 580 8775 rangerscharity@rangers.co.uk)
- All Participants take part in Zipside the Clyde at their own risk. In no event shall RCF be liable to a participant or spectator for any injuries or loss or damage to property whatsoever, including indirect, consequential or special losses howsoever caused.